Aspen, Colorado

The Magic of Skiing with Thomas Crum is the Aspen Ski Company's longest running specialty program for a good reason: we focus on the "big picture." We don't just see skiing (or riding) as a series of techniques. We view the art of skiing as a vehicle for self-awareness, an opportunity to practice centering, to cultivate appreciation, and to discover how to unify the mind and body to achieve inner peace. All this, while having even more fun on the mountain!

Imagine spending a winter week in the fabulous Rocky Mountain resort of Aspen, residing in view of Aspen Mountain, skiing some of the most magnificent and varied terrain in the world with great ski and riding instructors in an optimal learning environment, making new friends, and creating balance in your life at the same time.

We start every year in a peaceful, centered way with the Magic of Skiing.

Betty and Herb Jacobs,
Magic of Skiing Junkies, Denver, CO

The Magic of Skiing includes:

- Facilitation by Thomas Crum

Tom will lead all of the early morning and apres-ski seminar sessions, focusing on mind/body coordination, relaxation and awareness techniques, conflict resolution, and harmony in relationships.

- 5 Full Days of Ski Instruction with Top Quality Ski Professionals

In small groups (average of 4 students per instructor) arranged according to ability, from first-time skiers to experts. Ski the group's choice of Aspen Mountain, Snowmass, Buttermilk, or Aspen Highlands, with some of the best ski professionals the world has to offer.

- 6 Day Ski Lift Ticket

Good on Aspen Mountain, Snowmass, Buttermilk, or Aspen Highlands.

- Daily Full Nutritious Breakfast

- 7 Nights Lodging at The Gant

The Gant, located two blocks from downtown Aspen, is a condominium resort tucked away into a private enclave at the base of Aspen Mountain with a full fitness center including two heated pools and three jacuzzis. The condominiums at The Gant are more like a stay in a private home than a typical hotel. Each spacious two-bedroom/two bath unit features a wood-burning fireplace, private balcony, fully equipped kitchen, and the little touches expected of upscale lodging. (No-lodging packages available also.)

The Magic of Skiing is the greatest. We make it a New Year ritual for the entire family.

Ken Blanchard, co-author of The One Minute Manager series

In Tom Crum's program you will learn about the good energy in all of us and the choice we have to extend it.
